PORT STYLE BARREL FINISH RYE

Our original rye whisky, aged with a progressive series of hand toasted, select seasoned, new and used applewood and oak chips inside a used bourbon barrel, transferred to a second used bourbon barrel and then finished in used port style wine barrels from neighboring Virginia wineries. This process results in a slightly sweeter and darker rye yet still maintains some spice.

TASTING NOTES

Color: Burnished mahogany

Nose: Aromas of dark berries, baking chocolate, tobacco, new cowhide, and black tea.

Palate: An oily and elegant body with notes of orchard fruit, dark raisin, and red licorice is balanced with ample oak, baking cinnamon, and clove and interlaced with a delicate smokiness.

Finish: A savory, biscuit-like quality develops on the generous finish, leaving an impeccably balanced dessert lingering on the tongue.

Non-chill filtered.

Refined and complex, this is whisky meant for sipping.
